Embark on a journey through stories untold, dive deep into cultures, let their wonders unfold.

Activity 1: Discuss with your grandparents how their village looked like. What all do they love about the culture and traditions that were followed as a practise in their villages.

Draw the basic outline of your village from those ideas and write about the culture and tradition in your dream village.

Activity 2: Create a colorful drawing on A3 size sheet of your dream village. Show the important places like homes, schools, parks, farms, and any other special features.

Activity3: Make a healthy and nutritious dish without flame that can be unique to your dream village. Write down the method for making it and include a picture of you preparing the dish in the scrap book.

ENGLISH

TASK 1 – (Comprehension) Read your story book 'The Centerville Ghost' and check your understanding from the book back exercise. Do it in your flipped notebook.

TASK 2 – (Creative writing) Note all the difficult words from your story book. Write their meaning and frame sentences using them.

TASK 3 - (Show and tell) Enact and record any fable or story with a moral value using props made in accordance with the story line. Make it interesting and expressive.

SCIENCE

"A home can be made of sticks and mud or great big blocks of snow. A home can be twenty stories tall or in the ground below. A home can be way up on a hill or next to the ocean wide. A home can have a mill above or a chimney on its side. A home can be where you are safe and sound or with family, friends and more. A home can be where you have your heart and all that you adore. A house is our HOME SWEET HOME."
